

K-Export Specialist Academy - 2nd

For International Students Seeking Employment in Korea!

Ministry of SMEs and Startups Place Of Education Busan University Of Foreign Studies OR Online (choose your preferred method)

Busan University Of Foreign Studies Corp GLP GLOBAL : K-Export Specialist Academy.

The Korean government provides support for international students seeking employment in Korea.

1. Program Overview

- The Korean government provides support for international students seeking employment in Korea.
- A free Trade-focused Job Training Program designed for international students in Korea.
- Online and Offline Learning Options available (choose your preferred method).
- Certificate of Completion for the Trade Specialist Course at the Department of International Trade, Busan University of Foreign Studies.

2. Program Details

- Course Content: Training program aimed at employment in fields such as trade, import/export, and international sales.
- Employment Matching Support: Assistance with job matching in trade, import/export, and international sales.
- Certificate: A certificate upon completion of the Trade Specialist Course at the Department of International Trade, Busan University of Foreign Studies.

3. Application Instructions

- Application Deadline: July 21, 2025
- How to Apply: Send your resume (in Korean) to worldcareer@naver.com (Free format)

4. Important Notes

- Language of Instruction: The course will be conducted in Korean as it is designed for employment in Korea.
- Support: All costs for the program are fully covered and provided free of charge.
- Eligibility: International students seeking employment in Korea.

